

WSH Committee & Worker Safety & Health Representative Test

A mark of 80 per cent is required to pass.

Name: _____

Company: _____

Date: _____

Mark: _____

Section 1 – True or False. Circle the correct answer.

1. The Workplace Safety and Health Act was established in 1987 T F
2. The Workplace Safety and Health Act applies only to the construction industry T F
3. Amendments were made to MB Regulation 217 / 2006 in 2019 T F
4. MB Regulation 217 / 2006 is an omnibus regulation with more than 40 parts T F
5. The Workplace Safety and Health Act outlines duties specifically for safety coordinators T F
6. A safety rep or safety committee member is only entitled to half their regular wage while undergoing safety training T F
7. A prime contractor on a construction project site is only required when more than four employers are present T F
8. Safety Committees must meet on a minimum quarterly basis in order to properly carry out their duties T F
9. The employer must designate a safety-only bulletin board in the workplace T F
10. There are 11 required safety program elements according to Workplace Safety and Health T F
11. A safety rep is required on all construction sites, notwithstanding the requirements of a safety committee T F
12. A right-to-refuse investigation can only be settled following an inspection by a Workplace Safety and Health officer T F

13. The onsite supervisor can also be designated as the safety rep            T            F

Section 2 – Legislation. Use the W210 Workplace Safety and Health Act and MB Regulation 217 / 2006 to answer the following questions. Write the correct answer and reference the corresponding section of legislation. A correct answer is worth one point. Correct legislation is worth one more point.

1. Which is not required as part of a written health and safety program?

- a) Responsibilities
- b) Safety Budget
- c) Means of selecting and monitoring sub-contractors
- d) Program Review

Legislation: _____

2. When is a safety and health committee required on a construction project site?

- a) When there are at least 20 workers expected to be involved and the job is expected to last more than 90 days
- b) When there are at least four sub-trades on site
- c) When there are a minimum of four employees on site not associated with management
- d) When a safety coordinator is present

Legislation: _____

3. What necessary criteria must a safety and health committee meet according to legislation?

- a) Between 4 and 12 members, up to 10 management, with 2 co-chairpersons
- b) Must have a safety coordinator, 2 co-chairpersons, half management
- c) Between 4 and 12 members, 2 co-chairpersons, half management
- d) Must include the safety coordinator, prime contractor, and one tradesperson

Legislation: _____

4. How long must records be retained by an employer? _____

---

---

---

Legislation: _____

5. An employer who issues a powered lift truck (forklift) certificate to a worker must:
- a) Establish an evaluation system, maintain records, and produce certificates when necessary to Safety and Health officers
  - b) Establish an evaluation system, produce certificates when necessary to a Safety and Health officer, and hire a company to do training
  - c) Maintain training records, re-certify every four years, and provide certificates to Safety and Health officers when necessary
  - d) Hire a company to do training, give training records to employees, and send certificates to Workplace Safety and Health for verification

Legislation: _____

6. MB Regulation 217 / 2006 refers to how many different kinds of scaffolds?
-

Legislation: _____